Course Overview:

This course is based on the book The Emotional Life of Your Brain: How Its Unique Patterns Affect the Way You Think Feel, and Live – and How You Can Change Them by Richard Davidson, Ph.D. Dr. Davidson is a professor of Psychology and Psychiatry at the University of Wisconsin – Madison. Dr. Davidson is one of the world's leading authorities of neuropsychology and of mindfulness-based meditation systems. The book explores our six "Emotional Styles" – Resilience, Outlook, Social Intuition, Self-awareness, Sensitivity to Context, and Attention. The class will be structured around weekly student-centered discussions of the book.

Requirements, Assessment, and Grades:

I – Attendance and Participation: 20%

- You are expected to complete assigned readings prior to each class.
- Attendance will be taken each class. You may miss 1 class without penalty; each additional unexcused absence will incur a reduction of one letter grade. Please plan your Wednesday afternoons accordingly.
- The course is a semester-long, student-centered conversation, facilitated by the Course Directors, about numerous topics covered in the book.

II - There will be two 3 to 4-page papers (900-1200 words), each worth 40% (80% total).

- The papers are based on an integration of your reflections, understanding, and insights of our readings and classroom discussions.
- Papers must be emailed to Dr. Ritz by the due date. Late papers will be penalized with a letter grade deduction.

UF Class Attendance Policies: Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found at: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>

Students with Disabilities:

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, dso.ufl.edu/drc) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

UF Grading Policies:

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/grades-grading-policies/>

Grading:

A minimum grade of B is required to earn Academic points towards your Honors Completion Requirements. (Exception: Honors Quest I and II sections require a C). Once you have earned your final grade in this course, please upload the course information and final grade from your Unofficial Transcript into your Honors Canvas Cohort: Honors Completion module to earn Honors Milestone / Completion credit.

Course Evaluation:

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens and can complete evaluations via email, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via ufl.bluera.com/ufl/. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/.

Class Culture:

- 1) This is a paperless course. All discussion materials, other than the book, will be sent to the students as a PDF. Reflection papers will be emailed to lritz@ufl.edu by the deadline as a Word document (.doc or .docx only) copying to yourself. Canvass will not be used for this course.
- 2) Out of respect for each student's contributions to our discussions, we will give everyone our full attention. Please do not check your cell phone or computer (other than class notes) during class time.
- 3) All religious, spiritual, psychological, and scientific perspectives of the class participants will be honored.
- 4) Dr. Ritz is available to meet with students for Krishna Lunch or at his office within the McKnight Brain Institute.
